COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

Letter of Intent

This Letter of Intent indicates that the ACCMI and Commonwealth University of Pennsylvania (CUP) wish to work together to explore possible educational initiatives in the following areas;

1. Collaboration on undergraduate and graduate programs;
2. Student and faculty exchange programs;
3. Syllabus development; and
4. Joint development of research proposals, training programs, and new programs.

ACCMI and CUP will engage in collaborative identification and evaluation efforts relative to possible development and implementation opportunities within India for these initiatives, as well as any others identified and agreed to. Until there is a definitive agreement which outlines any financial details none of the parties hereto (ACCMI or CUP) shall have any obligation in terms of payment or costs to one another.

This letter of intent does not commit or obligate ACCMI or CUP to move forward with any of the above potentially identified opportunities / initiatives; any determination of such will be made pending outcomes of any pilot, identification and evaluation efforts.

This letter of intent may be withdrawn by either ACCMI or CUP at any time with 30-day notice by the withdrawing party to the other party through the contact information below. The signatories, main contact and contact information for ACCMI and CUP relative to this letter of Intent and any possibly related initiatives are as indicated below. The term of this agreement is 15 months unless otherwise ended as provided for above herein, or mutually extended by the parties.
